

International Law

Since 1913 international companies conducting business in Michigan have recognized Plunkett Cooney as their law firm of choice.

Our attorneys understand the Midwest and particularly the Ohio and Michigan business climates and leverage that knowledge to the benefit of clients wishing to establish or grow their business operations. Clients tell us they appreciate that our attorneys take time to understand their products, company history and business goals before offering crucial legal or strategic business advice.

The firm's international law practice is comprised of an array of legal services, including but not limited to, acquisitions, joint ventures, facility establishment, insurance coverage, contract negotiation, labor and employment law, commercial litigation, tax law, real estate law and immigration issues.

In addition to traditional litigation and transactional services, Plunkett Cooney provides its international clients with added value business services such as referrals to lending institutions and professional service firms, introductions to key business organizations and advice related to obtaining tax credits and other governmental assistance.

Plunkett Cooney is a founding member of ALFA International, a global network of 125 independent law firms representing North America, Latin America, India, Europe, Africa, and the Pacific Rim.

A member of the firm currently serves as Honorary Consul to The Netherlands and as such provides assistance to businesses and individuals working in Michigan. The firm is also an influential member of key business organizations such as the Detroit Regional Chamber of Commerce, Automation Alley, Detroit Economic Club, Columbus Chamber of Commerce, International Visitors Council and many others that are instrumental in the success of foreign and domestic businesses operating in the Midwest.
