

First Party No Fault Litigation (PIP)

Motor vehicle litigation also gives rise to first party cases. These are cases alleging failure to pay medical expenses, wage loss, loss of services, and attendant care under the No Fault Act as a result of injuries suffered in automobile accidents. These lawsuits are direct claims against insurance carriers by their insureds for benefits under the No Fault Act. Our attorneys have handled numerous cases in this area of litigation.