

Core Values

The men and women of Plunkett Cooney take pride in the firm's rich history as a leader in the legal industry. Since 1913, the firm has faithfully and successfully served its clients in courtrooms and boardrooms across the Midwest and beyond.

Our commitment to providing exceptional client service and expert legal advice is captured in the firm's mission statement and fortified by our core values. These uncompromising values distinguish Plunkett Cooney as a unique business culture and serve as the standards by which the firm conducts business and by which our employees conduct themselves.
